

Paolo Gazzarrini FEC, P.Eng. MASCE, D.GE

Paolo Gazzarrini is an independent specialty foundation consultant based in Vancouver, BC, Canada, since 1998. He received his Masters in Civil Engineering at Milan Polytechnic, Italy, and has more than 40 years of experience in specialty geotechnical contracting and engineering.

He has been involved in grouting foundation projects for major hydroelectric projects all over the world with experience in foundation techniques, tunneling, tunneling consolidation, diaphragm walls, anchoring, rock/soil grouting and jet grouting. Since 2002 promoter of jet grouting in BC.

He is a member of ASCE-GI, CGS, TAC, ASDSO, USSD and DFI and he is an active participant on the ASCE-Geo Institute Grouting Committee and DFI International Grouting Committee, and has also served as Chairman of the two Committees. Paolo lectures at UBC on the topic of soil/rock grouting and jet grouting and is editor of The Grout Line (www.groutline.com).