April 22-26, 2024 | Online Midyear Committee Meetings

Interested in finding out more about what DFI's Technical Committees are up to? Perhaps you've been thinking of joining one but you're undecided?

If so, join DFI for our Midyear Committee Week where all DFI technical committees will hold online meetings for existing and potential members to learn about innovative projects, current industry practices and events, and discuss future activities.

To join the meeting for a committee you are not a member of, register at bit.ly/CommitteeWeek2024-Registration

Everyone is welcome.
