

Jessica Halpern, PMP

Jessica is a Business Development Manager at Magnum Piering, specializing in deep foundation systems for electrical power infrastructure. She works with engineers, contractors, and utilities to support transmission, substation, and energy projects across North America, with a focus on constructability and practical foundation solutions. Jessica is an active member of the Deep Foundations Institute (DFI), serving as Communications Chair for the Electrical Power Systems Foundations (EPSF) Committee.