

Billy Fisher

Currently Mr. Fisher is the Division Manager for Russo Corporation's Foundation West Division. He has two decades of geotechnical construction experience providing preconstruction, estimating, business development, project management and operations management. Experience in deep foundation; auger cast piles, micropiles, helical and drilled shafts, as well as earth retention, compaction grouting/low mobility grouting, high mobility grouting, railroad subgrade injection stabilization and multiple ground improvement techniques including vibro piers, compaction grouting, jet grouting, soil mixing and injection systems for expansive clays.