

Cerys Orriss

Cerys is the Sustainability Manager at Aarsleff Ground Engineering, Centrum Pile, and Cannon Piling, specializing in decarbonisation strategies and emissions reduction across the ground engineering sector. With expertise in operational and embodied emissions, she plays a key role in integrating sustainable practices into ground engineering operations. Her work focuses on advancing low-carbon solutions, improving environmental performance, and contributing to the wider adoption of sustainable ground engineering techniques.